Mr. Hanson is Nominated.

The nomination of a candidate for Congress being the next order of business, according to the program adopted, Morgan Treat, of King William, addressed the chair, and in a brief eulogy placed the name of George A. Hanson before the convention. He commended him as a man of ability, of character, and one who had rendered his parry faithful and conspicuous service.

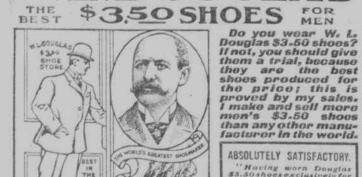

M. J. Enright, of Goochland county, seconded the nomination in a brief speech, characterized by excellent taste and judgment.

J. G. Luce, of Goochland county, seconded the nomination of a brief speech, characterized by excellent taste and judgment.

J. G. Luce, of Goochland placed in nomination C. Ridgway Moore, of the Richmend bar.

Mr. Messre promptly rose and stated that, having been elected city chairman by the party, he would hardly have time to make a canvass for Congress if nominated, and, while appreciating the mention of his name, he begged to withdraw it.

Thereupon Mr. Luce withdrew Mr.
